ORDER:

In the letters 1st read above, the Chairman, State Level Police Recruitment Board, A.P., Hyderabad, has reported that every year eligible RSIs from AR and APSP are selected under 5% quota for conversion as Sub Inspectors and are sent for six months training at APPA. During the year 2006, a total of 22 RSIs were selected for conversion as Civil S.Is. These 22 RSIs converted as Civil S.Is. are now awaiting for orders to be sent for conversion training at APPA. Before the above conversion, one Sri R.S.Madhu Babu, RSI on his disqualification for conversion, approached the Hon'ble A.P.A.T., by filing O.A. No.3030/2007. The Hon'ble APAT, Hyderabad, in its orders dated 22.3.2007, directed the Department to consider his case. The following are the brief facts of his case, for not considering him:

- i) He belongs to 1996 batch of RSIs of AR of Kurnool Range
- ii) As per the Service Record, he was awarded -2 Censures + removal from service and GSE-13 +CR-13 for both the years 2004 & 2005
- iii) He was suspended for unauthorised absence of 89 days and later on removed from service on 7.1.2000
- iv) On his appeal to Govt. he was reinstated into service during the year 2002 vide G.O. Ms.No.106, Home (Pol.D) Department, dated 17.4.2002
- v) He is presently working at PTC, Amberpet, Hyderabad
- vi) He did not meet the eligibility criteria for the year 2004
- vii) On merit for conversion as Civil S.Is., his position figured at Sl.No.16, out of 21 candidates, as against only (3) vacancies for the year 2004, and similarly his position figured at Sl.No.21, out of 25 candidates, as against only (3) vacancies for the year 2005 in Zone-IV. Hence, there are 12 and 17 candidates who secured more points having good service record and placed over and above him, for the years 2004 and 2005 respectively.

2. The Chairman, State Level Police Recruitment Board, A.P., Hyderabad, has further reported that they have filed a W.P. in the Hon'ble High Court against the orders of the Hon'ble A.P.A.T. But the Hon'ble High Court did not consider the above facts, while disposing the W.P. 11762/2007, dated 24.8.2007. Then they have approached the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India by filing SLP Nos.22401-22404 of 2007.

3. In the reference 2nd read above, Sri R.Ravi, and 23 other RSIs converted as S.I. (Civil) have represented that on 30-6-2007 orders were issued by the Chairman, State Level Police Recruitment Board, with instructions to report before the concerned Range Dy. Inspectors General of Police. Accordingly, they have reported in the first week of July, 2007 as Sub Inspector of Police (Civil). But so far, they have not been sent for training on the ground that department filed SLP No.22401/07 to 22404/07 against the Hon'ble High Court orders dated 24.8.2007 in W.P. No.11762/07 (R.S.Madhu Babu case). The A.P. Police Academy is also willing to conduct conversion training. Hence, they have requested the Government to issue instructions for conducting conversion training in APPA.

4. In the letter 4th read above, the Chairman, State Level Police Recruitment Board, A.P., Hyderabad, has further reported that the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in its interim orders dated 7.7.2008 states that in case the incumbent undertakes a training, that will be without prejudice to the rights of the State and in case the State succeeds, then the incumbent will not be entitled to the benefit of training which he has undergone.

5. The matter has been examined by Government and considered that in view of the interim orders of the Hon'ble Supreme Court dated 7.7.2008 read with the orders of the Hon'ble High Court dated 24.8.2007, Sri R.S.Madhu Babu, RSI is entitled for inclusion of his name in the next batch of conversion training, subject to outcome of the SLP Nos.22401-22404 of 2007 pending before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. Hence, his name has to be considered for conversion training along with 24 converted Sub Inspectors of Police (Civil) of 2006.

6. Accordingly, Government hereby direct that 24 converted Sub Inspectors of Police (Civil) of 2006, be deputed for training, along with Sri R.S.Madhu Babu, immediately without any further delay. The training in respect of Sri R.S.Madhu Babu, is subject to outcome of the SLP Nos.22401-22404 of 2007 pending before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India.

7. The Director General of Police, A.P., Hyderabad, is requested to take further necessary action in the matter, accordingly.
